(3)(4) The operating agreement may not:

- (a) unreasonably restrict a right to information or access to records under 35-8-405;

 - (i) identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of loyalty, if not manifestly unreasonable; and

- (ii) specify the number or percentage of members or disinterested managers that may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty;
- (c) unreasonably reduce the duty of care under 35-8-310;
- (d) eliminate the obligation of good faith and fair dealing under 35-8-310, but the operating agreement may determine the standards by which the performance of the obligation is to be measured, if the standards are not manifestly unreasonable;
- (e) vary the right to expel a member upon the occurrence of an event specified in 35-8-803;
- (f) vary the requirement to wind up the limited liability company's business in a case specified in 35-8-901(1)(c) or 35-8-902; or

- (a) the amendment of the operating agreement under 35-8-109;
- (b) the authorization or ratification of acts or transactions under ~~35-8-109(3)(b)(ii)~~ 35-8-109 that would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty;
- (c) an amendment to the articles of organization under 35-8-203;

- (l) the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposal of all, or substantially all, of the company's property with or without goodwill.

(4) Unless the articles of organization or the operating agreement provide otherwise, the management of a series of members is vested in the members associated with the series in proportion to their contribution to the capital of the series as adjusted from time to time to reflect properly any additional contributions or withdrawals from the assets or income of the series by the members associated with the series.

(5) Action requiring the consent of members or managers under this chapter may be taken without a meeting.

(6) A member or manager may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the member or manager by signing an appointment instrument, either personally or by the member's or manager's attorney-in-fact.

(7) (a) The articles of organization or operating agreement of a limited liability company may:

- (i) create one or more series of members; or
- (ii) vest authority in one or more members or managers of the company or in other persons to create one or more series of members that may include, without limitation, rights, powers, and duties senior to any existing series of members.

(b) The articles of organization or operating agreement may provide that any member associated with a series of members has no voting rights or has voting rights that differ from other members or other series of members.

(c) A series of members may have separate powers, rights, or duties with respect to specified property or obligations of the company or profits and losses associated with specified property or obligations, and any series of members may have a separate business purpose or investment objective."
