BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

Section 1. Section 41-3-422, MCA, is amended to read:

"41-3-422. (Temporary) Abuse and neglect petitions -- burden of proof. (1) (a) Proceedings under this chapter must be initiated by the filing of a petition. A petition may request the following relief:

- (i) ~~immediate protection and emergency protective services, as provided in 41-3-427;~~

(b) ~~The petition may be modified for different relief at any time within the discretion of the court.~~

(c) ~~A petition for temporary legal custody may be the initial petition filed in a case.~~

(d) ~~A petition for the termination of the parent-child legal relationship may be the initial petition filed~~

1 in a case if a request for a determination that preservation or reunification services need not be provided is
2 made in the petition.

3 (2) ~~— The county attorney, attorney general, or an attorney hired by the county shall file all petitions~~
4 ~~under this chapter. A petition filed by the county attorney, attorney general, or an attorney hired by the county~~
5 ~~must be accompanied by:~~

6 (a) ~~— an affidavit by the department alleging that the child appears to have been abused or neglected~~
7 ~~and stating the basis for the petition; and~~

8 (b) ~~— a separate notice to the court stating any statutory time deadline for a hearing.~~

9 (3) ~~— Abuse and neglect petitions must be given highest preference by the court in setting hearing~~
10 ~~dates.~~

11 (4) ~~— An abuse and neglect petition is a civil action brought in the name of the state of Montana. The~~ 12 ~~Montana Rules of Civil Procedure and the Montana Rules of Evidence apply except as modified in this chapter.~~
13 ~~Proceedings under a petition are not a bar to criminal prosecution.~~

14 (5) ~~— (a) Except as provided in subsection (5)(b), the person filing the abuse and neglect petition has~~ 15 ~~the burden of presenting evidence required to justify the relief requested and establishing:~~

18 (ii) ~~— a preponderance of the evidence for an order of adjudication or temporary legal custody;~~

19 (iii) ~~— a preponderance of the evidence for an order of long-term custody; or~~

21 (b) ~~— If a proceeding under this chapter involves an Indian child, as defined in the federal Indian~~
22 ~~Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. 1901, et seq., or 41-3-1303, the standards of proof required for legal relief under~~
23 ~~the federal Indian Child Welfare Act and the Montana Indian Child Welfare Act provided for in Title 41, chapter~~
24 ~~3, part 13, apply.~~

25 (6) ~~— (a) Except as provided in the federal Indian Child Welfare Act and the Montana Indian Child~~
26 ~~Welfare Act, if applicable, the parents or parent, guardian, or other person or agency having legal custody of~~
27 ~~the child named in the petition, if residing in the state, must be served personally with a copy of the initial~~ 28 ~~petition and a petition to terminate the parent-child legal relationship at least 5 days before the date set for~~

1 hearing. If the person or agency cannot be served personally, the person or agency may be served by 2 publication as provided in 41-3-428 and 41-3-429.

3 (b)——Copies of all other petitions must be served upon the person or the person's attorney of record
4 by certified mail, by personal service, or by publication as provided in 41-3-428 and 41-3-429. If service is by 5 certified mail, the department must receive a return receipt signed by the person to whom the notice was mailed
6 for the service to be effective. Service of the notice is considered to be effective if, in the absence of a return
7 receipt, the person to whom the notice was mailed appears at the hearing.

8 (7)——If personal service cannot be made upon the parents or parent, guardian, or other person or 9 agency having legal custody, the court shall immediately provide for the appointment or assignment of an
10 attorney as provided for in 41-3-425 to represent the unavailable party when, in the opinion of the court, the 11 interests of justice require. If personal service cannot be made upon a putative father, the court may not provide 12 for the appointment or assignment of counsel as provided for in 41-3-425 to represent the father unless, in the 13 opinion of the court, the interests of justice require counsel to be appointed or assigned.

14 (8)——If a parent of the child is a minor, notice must be given to the minor parent's parents or 15 guardian, and if there is no guardian, the court shall appoint one.

16 (9)——(a) Any person interested in any cause under this chapter has the right to appear. Any foster
17 parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the child must be given legal notice by the attorney filing the 18 petition of all judicial hearings for the child and has the right to be heard. The right to appear or to be heard
19 does not make that person a party to the action. Any foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the 20 child must be given notice of all reviews by the reviewing body.

21 (b)——A foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative of the child who is caring for or a relative of the
22 child who has cared for a child who is the subject of the petition who appears at a hearing set pursuant to this
23 section may be allowed by the court to intervene in the action if the court, after a hearing in which evidence is
24 presented on those subjects provided for in 41-3-437(4), determines that the intervention of the person is in the
25 best interests of the child. A person granted intervention pursuant to this subsection is entitled to participate in 26 the adjudicatory hearing held pursuant to 41-3-437 and to notice and participation in subsequent proceedings
27 held pursuant to this chapter involving the custody of the child.

28 (c)——Whenever a child is placed with a foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative, the department shall provide written notice to the foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative explaining the foster parent's, preadoptive parent's, or relative's rights under this subsection (9) to receive notice, to appear and be heard, and to attempt to intervene in proceedings under this chapter.

(10) — An abuse and neglect petition must state:

(a) — the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect and of the relief requested;

(b) — the full name, age, and address of the child and the name and address of the child's parents or the guardian or person having legal custody of the child; and

(c) — the names, addresses, and relationship to the child of all persons who are necessary parties to the action.

(11) — Any party in a proceeding pursuant to this section is entitled to counsel as provided in 41-3-425.

(12) — At any stage of the proceedings considered appropriate by the court, the court may order an alternative dispute resolution proceeding or the parties may voluntarily participate in an alternative dispute resolution proceeding. An alternative dispute resolution proceeding under this chapter may include a family engagement meeting, mediation, or a settlement conference. If a court orders an alternative dispute resolution proceeding, a party who does not wish to participate may file a motion objecting to the order. If the department is a party to the original proceeding, a representative of the department who has complete authority to settle the issue or issues in the original proceeding must be present at any alternative dispute resolution proceeding.

(13) — Service of a petition under this section must be accompanied by a written notice advising the child's parent, guardian, or other person having physical or legal custody of the child of the:

(a) — right, pursuant to 41-3-425, to appointment or assignment of counsel if the person is indigent or if appointment or assignment of counsel is required under the federal Indian Child Welfare Act or the Montana Indian Child Welfare Act, if applicable;

(b) — right to contest the allegations in the petition; and

(c) — timelines for hearings and determinations required under this chapter.

(14) — If appropriate, orders issued under this chapter must contain a notice provision advising a child's parent, guardian, or other person having physical or legal custody of the child that:

(a) — the court is required by federal and state laws to hold a permanency hearing to determine the permanent placement of a child no later than 12 months after a judge determines that the child has been abused or neglected or 12 months after the first 60 days that the child has been removed from the child's home;

(b) if a child has been in foster care for 15 of the last 22 months, state law presumes that termination of parental rights is in the best interests of the child and the state is required to file a petition to terminate parental rights; and

(c) completion of a treatment plan does not guarantee the return of a child.

(15) A court may appoint a standing master to conduct hearings and propose decisions and orders to the court for court consideration and action. A standing master may not conduct a proceeding to terminate parental rights. A standing master must be a member of the state bar of Montana and must be knowledgeable in the area of child abuse and neglect laws. (Terminates June 30, 2025—sec. 55, Ch. 716, L. 2023.)

41-3-422. (Effective July 1, 2025) Abuse and neglect petitions -- burden of proof. (1) (a)

Proceedings under this chapter must be initiated by the filing of a petition. A petition may request the following relief:

- (i) immediate protection and emergency protective services, as provided in 41-3-427;

- (iii) temporary legal custody, as provided in 41-3-442;
- (iv) long-term custody, as provided in 41-3-445;
- (v) termination of the parent-child legal relationship, as provided in 41-3-607;
- (vi) appointment of a guardian pursuant to 41-3-444;
- (vii) a determination that preservation or reunification services need not be provided; or
- (viii) any combination of the provisions of subsections (1)(a)(i) through (1)(a)(vii) or any other relief that may be required for the best interests of the child.

(b) The petition may be modified for different relief at any time within the discretion of the court.

(c) A petition for temporary legal custody may be the initial petition filed in a case.

(d) A petition for the termination of the parent-child legal relationship may be the initial petition filed in a case if a request for a determination that preservation or reunification services need not be provided is made in the petition.

(2) The county attorney, attorney general, or an attorney hired by the county shall file all petitions

under this chapter. A petition filed by the county attorney, attorney general, or an attorney hired by the county must be accompanied by:

(a) an affidavit by the department alleging that the child appears to have been abused or neglected and stating the basis for the petition; and

(b) a separate notice to the court stating any statutory time deadline for a hearing.

(3) The affidavit by the department must include INFORMATION THAT IS VERIFIED TO BE UP TO DATE AT THE TIME THE AFFIDAVIT IS FILED, INCLUDING, if available, as attachments: INFORMATION ON THE DISPOSITION OF ANY CRIMINAL CASE REFERENCED IN THE AFFIDAVIT.

(a) law enforcement reports and other investigative materials related to the allegation of abuse or neglect, including conclusions reached by law enforcement or other investigators; and

(b) court records indicating the final disposition of any criminal case filed as a result of the allegation of abuse or neglect.

(4) The affidavit by the department and its attachments must include all information or evidence that tends to contradict, disprove, or otherwise not support the allegation of abuse or neglect or the relief sought by the petition and must include only information or evidence that is verified to be accurate at the time the affidavit is filed.

(5) Prior to the filing of the affidavit, the department shall obtain reports produced by law enforcement that involve any adult party named in the petition .

(3)(6) (4) Abuse and neglect petitions must be given highest preference by the court in setting hearing dates.

(4)(7) (5) An abuse and neglect petition is a civil action brought in the name of the state of Montana. The Montana Rules of Civil Procedure and the Montana Rules of Evidence apply except as modified in this chapter. Proceedings under a petition are not a bar to criminal prosecution.

(5)(8) (6) (a) Except as provided in subsection (5)(b) (8)(b) (6)(B), the person filing the abuse and neglect petition has the burden of presenting evidence required to justify the relief requested and establishing:

(i) probable cause for the issuance of an order for immediate protection and emergency protective services or an order for temporary investigative authority;

(ii) a preponderance of the evidence for an order of adjudication or temporary legal custody;

(iii) a preponderance of the evidence for an order of long-term custody; or

(iv) clear and convincing evidence for an order terminating the parent-child legal relationship.

(b) If a proceeding under this chapter involves an Indian child, as defined in the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. 1901, et seq., the standards of proof required for legal relief under the federal Indian Child Welfare Act apply.

~~(6)(9)~~ (7) (a) Except as provided in the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, if applicable, the parents or parent, guardian, or other person or agency having legal custody of the child named in the petition, if residing in the state, must be served personally with a copy of the initial petition and a petition to terminate the parent-child legal relationship at least 5 days before the date set for hearing. If the person or agency cannot be served personally, the person or agency may be served by publication as provided in 41-3-428 and 41-3-429.

(b) Copies of all other petitions must be served upon the person or the person's attorney of record by certified mail, by personal service, or by publication as provided in 41-3-428 and 41-3-429. If service is by certified mail, the department must receive a return receipt signed by the person to whom the notice was mailed for the service to be effective. Service of the notice is considered to be effective if, in the absence of a return receipt, the person to whom the notice was mailed appears at the hearing.

~~(7)(10)~~ (8) If personal service cannot be made upon the parents or parent, guardian, or other person or agency having legal custody, the court shall immediately provide for the appointment or assignment of an attorney as provided for in 41-3-425 to represent the unavailable party when, in the opinion of the court, the interests of justice require. If personal service cannot be made upon a putative father, the court may not provide for the appointment or assignment of counsel as provided for in 41-3-425 to represent the father unless, in the opinion of the court, the interests of justice require counsel to be appointed or assigned.

~~(8)(11)~~ (9) If a parent of the child is a minor, notice must be given to the minor parent's parents or guardian, and if there is no guardian, the court shall appoint one.

~~(9)(12)~~ (10) (a) Any person interested in any cause under this chapter has the right to appear. Any foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the child must be given legal notice by the attorney filing the petition of all judicial hearings for the child and has the right to be heard. The right to appear or to be heard

1 does not make that person a party to the action. Any foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the
2 child must be given notice of all reviews by the reviewing body.

3 (b) A foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative of the child who is caring for or a relative of the
4 child who has cared for a child who is the subject of the petition who appears at a hearing set pursuant to this
5 section may be allowed by the court to intervene in the action if the court, after a hearing in which evidence is
6 presented on those subjects provided for in 41-3-437(4), determines that the intervention of the person is in the
7 best interests of the child. A person granted intervention pursuant to this subsection ~~(12)(b)~~ (10)(B) is entitled to 8 participate in the adjudicatory hearing held pursuant to 41-3-437 and to notice and participation in subsequent

12 preadoptive parent's, or relative's rights under this subsection ~~(9)-(12)~~ (10) to receive notice, to appear and be 13 heard, and to attempt to intervene in proceedings under this chapter.

14 ~~(10)(13)~~ (11) An abuse and neglect petition must state:

19 the action.

20 ~~(11)(14)~~ (12) Any party in a proceeding pursuant to this section is entitled to counsel as provided in 21 41-3-425.

22 ~~(12)(15)~~ (13) At any stage of the proceedings considered appropriate by the court, the court may 23 order an alternative dispute resolution proceeding or the parties may voluntarily participate in an alternative

13 (b) if a child has been in foster care for 15 of the last 22 months, state law presumes that 14 termination of parental rights is in the best interests of the child and the state is required to file a petition to 15 terminate parental rights; and

16 (c) completion of a treatment plan does not guarantee the return of a child.

17 ~~(15)(18)~~ (16) A court may appoint a standing master to conduct hearings and propose decisions and

22 Section 2. Section 41-3-437, MCA, is amended to read:

23 ~~"41-3-437. (Temporary) Adjudication -- temporary disposition -- findings -- order. (1) Upon the~~
24 ~~filing of an appropriate petition, an adjudicatory hearing must be held within 90 days of a show cause hearing~~
25 ~~under 41-3-432. Adjudication may take place at the show cause hearing if the requirements of subsection (2)~~
26 ~~are met or may be made by prior stipulation of the parties pursuant to 41-3-434 and order of the court.~~
27 ~~Exceptions to the time limit may be allowed only in cases involving newly discovered evidence, unavoidable~~
28 ~~delays, stipulation by the parties pursuant to 41-3-434, and unforeseen personal emergencies.~~

(2) — The court may make an adjudication on a petition under 41-3-422 if the court determines by a preponderance of the evidence, except as provided in the federal Indian Child Welfare Act or the Montana Indian Child Welfare Act provided for in Title 41, chapter 3, part 13, if applicable, that the child is a youth in need of care. Except as otherwise provided in this part, the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure and the Montana Rules of Evidence apply to adjudication and to an adjudicatory hearing. Adjudication must determine the nature of the abuse and neglect and establish facts that resulted in state intervention and upon which disposition, case work, court review, and possible termination are based.

(3) — The court shall hear evidence regarding the residence of the child, paternity, if in question, the whereabouts of the parents, guardian, or nearest adult relative, and any other matters the court considers relevant in determining the status of the child. Hearsay evidence of statements made by the affected youth is admissible according to the Montana Rules of Evidence.

(4) — In a case in which abandonment has been alleged by the county attorney, the attorney general, or an attorney hired by the county, the court shall hear offered evidence, including evidence offered by a person appearing pursuant to 41-3-422(9)(a) or (9)(b), regarding any of the following subjects:

(a) — the extent to which the child has been cared for, nurtured, or supported by a person other than the child's parents; and

(b) — whether the child was placed or allowed to remain by the parents with another person for the care of the child, and, if so, then the court shall accept evidence regarding:

(i) — the intent of the parents in placing the child or allowing the child to remain with that person;

(ii) — the continuity of care the person has offered the child by providing permanency or stability in residence, schooling, and activities outside of the home; and

(iii) — the circumstances under which the child was placed or allowed to remain with that other person, including:

(A) — whether a parent requesting return of the child was previously prevented from doing so as a result of an order issued pursuant to Title 40, chapter 15, part 2, or of a conviction pursuant to 45-5-206; and

(B) — whether the child was originally placed with the other person to allow the parent to seek employment or attend school.

(5) — In all civil and criminal proceedings relating to abuse or neglect, the privileges related to the examination or treatment of the child do not apply, except the attorney-client privilege granted by 26-1-803 and the mediation privilege granted by 26-1-813.

(6) — (a) If the court determines that the child is not an abused or neglected child, the petition must be dismissed and any order made pursuant to 41-3-427 or 41-3-432 must be vacated.

(b) — If the child is adjudicated a youth in need of care, the court shall set a date for a dispositional hearing to be conducted within 20 days, as provided in 41-3-438(1), and order any necessary or required investigations. The court may issue a temporary dispositional order pending the dispositional hearing. The temporary dispositional order may provide for any of the forms of relief listed in 41-3-427(2).

(7) — (a) Before making an adjudication, the court may make oral findings, and following the adjudicatory hearing, the court shall make written findings on issues, including but not limited to the following:

(i) — which allegations of the petition have been proved or admitted, if any;

(ii) — whether there is a legal basis for continued court and department intervention; and

(iii) — whether the department has made reasonable efforts to avoid protective placement of the child or to make it possible to safely return the child to the child's home.

(b) — The court may order:

(i) — terms for visitation, support, and other intrafamily communication pending disposition if the child is to be placed or to remain in temporary out-of-home care prior to disposition;

(ii) — examinations, evaluations, or counseling of the child or parents in preparation for the disposition hearing that does not require an expenditure of money by the department unless the court finds after notice and a hearing that the expenditure is reasonable and that resources are available for payment. The department is the payor of last resort after all family, insurance, and other resources have been examined.

(iii) — the department to evaluate the noncustodial parent or relatives as possible caretakers, if not already done;

(iv) — the perpetrator of the alleged child abuse or neglect to be removed from the home to allow the child to remain in the home; and

(v) — the department to continue efforts to notify noncustodial parents.

(8) — If a proceeding under this chapter involves an Indian child and is subject to the federal Indian Child Welfare Act or the Montana Indian Child Welfare Act, a qualified expert witness is required to testify that the continued custody of the Indian child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child. (Terminates June 30, 2025—sec. 55, Ch. 716, L. 2023.)

41-3-437. (Effective July 1, 2025) Adjudication -- temporary disposition -- findings -- order. (1)

Upon the filing of an appropriate petition, an adjudicatory hearing must be held within 90 days of a show cause hearing under 41-3-432. Adjudication may take place at the show cause hearing if the requirements of subsection (2) are met or may be made by prior stipulation of the parties pursuant to 41-3-434 and order of the court. Exceptions to the time limit may be allowed only in cases involving newly discovered evidence, unavoidable delays, stipulation by the parties pursuant to 41-3-434, and unforeseen personal emergencies.

(2) The court may make an adjudication on a petition under 41-3-422 if the court determines by a preponderance of the evidence, except as provided in the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, if applicable, that the child is a youth in need of care. Except as otherwise provided in this part, the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure and the Montana Rules of Evidence apply to adjudication and to an adjudicatory hearing. Adjudication must determine the nature of the abuse and neglect and establish facts that resulted in state intervention and upon which disposition, case work, court review, and possible termination are based.

(3) The court shall hear evidence regarding the residence of the child, paternity, if in question, the whereabouts of the parents, guardian, or nearest adult relative, and any other matters the court considers relevant in determining the status of the child. Hearsay evidence of statements made by the affected youth is admissible according to the Montana Rules of Evidence.

(4) In a case in which abandonment has been alleged by the county attorney, the attorney general, or an attorney hired by the county, the court shall hear offered evidence, including evidence offered by a person appearing pursuant to ~~41-3-422(9)(a)~~ 41-3-422(12)(a) 41-3-422(10)(A) or ~~(9)(b)~~ (12)(b) (10)(B), regarding any of the following subjects:

(a) the extent to which the child has been cared for, nurtured, or supported by a person other than the child's parents; and

(b) whether the child was placed or allowed to remain by the parents with another person for the care of the child, and, if so, then the court shall accept evidence regarding:

(i) the intent of the parents in placing the child or allowing the child to remain with that person;

(ii) the continuity of care the person has offered the child by providing permanency or stability in

1 residence, schooling, and activities outside of the home; and

2 (iii) the circumstances under which the child was placed or allowed to remain with that other
3 person, including:

4 (A) whether a parent requesting return of the child was previously prevented from doing so as a
5 result of an order issued pursuant to Title 40, chapter 15, part 2, or of a conviction pursuant to 45-5-206; and

6 (B) whether the child was originally placed with the other person to allow the parent to seek 7 employment or attend school.

8 (5) In all civil and criminal proceedings relating to abuse or neglect, the privileges related to the
9 examination or treatment of the child do not apply, except the attorney-client privilege granted by 26-1-803 and 10 the mediation privilege granted by 26-1-813.

11 (6) (a) If the court determines that the child is not an abused or neglected child, the petition must 12 be dismissed and any order made pursuant to 41-3-427 or 41-3-432 must be vacated.

13 (b) If the child is adjudicated a youth in need of care, the court shall set a date for a dispositional
14 hearing to be conducted within 20 days, as provided in 41-3-438(1), and order any necessary or required
15 investigations. The court may issue a temporary dispositional order pending the dispositional hearing. The 16 temporary dispositional order may provide for any of the forms of relief listed in 41-3-427(2).

17 (7) (a) Before making an adjudication, the court may make oral findings, and following the 18 adjudicatory hearing, the court shall make written findings on issues, including but not limited to the following:

19 (i) which allegations of the petition have been proved or admitted, if any;

20 (ii) whether there is a legal basis for continued court and department intervention; and

21 (iii) whether the department has made reasonable efforts to avoid protective placement of the child
22 or to make it possible to safely return the child to the child's home.

23 (b) The court may order:

24 (i) terms for visitation, support, and other intrafamily communication pending disposition if the
25 child is to be placed or to remain in temporary out-of-home care prior to disposition;

26 (ii) examinations, evaluations, or counseling of the child or parents in preparation for the 27 disposition hearing that does not require an expenditure of money by the department unless the court finds
