69th Legislature 2025 SB 476.1

NEW SECTION. Section 2. Legislative branch power. Article V of the Montana constitution vests the legislature with power that cannot be exercised by other branches of government. This power is exercised through a legislature consisting of a senate and a house of representatives.

NEW SECTION. Section 3. Executive branch power. Article VI of the Montana constitution vests the executive branch with power that cannot be exercised by other branches of government. This power is exercised through a governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, auditor, board of regents, and board of public education. The executive power includes:

- (1) the authority of the board of regents to perform duties provided by law and [section 7]; and
- (2) the authority of the board of public education to perform duties provided by law and [section 7].

NEW SECTION. Section 4. Judicial branch power. Article VII of the Montana constitution vests the judicial branch with power that cannot be exercised by other branches of government. This power is exercised through a supreme court, district courts, justice courts, and other courts as may be provided by state statute.

NEW SECTION. Section 5. Executive branch power of board of regents and board of public education -- definitions. (1) The board of regents and the board of public education are agencies of the executive branch of state government. As such, they are required to enforce, within their respective spheres, laws adopted by the legislature or by the people.

- (2) The oversight of the Montana university system entrusted by the state constitution to the board of regents refers to the kind of oversight customarily exercised by executive branch officers over operations assigned to them and does not extend to overriding state statutes. The board of regents' power regarding the government, control, supervision, coordination, and management of the university system and other public educational institutions is assigned by law.
- (3) The duties entrusted by the state constitution to the board of public education are limited to executive branch functions and do not extend to overriding state statutes. The board of public education exercises general supervision over the public school system and other public educational institutions as assigned by law.
